

Acronym/Nickname		Certification Body EC-COUNCIL
Description		Certification Level Entry
Network 5 is not meant for office goers alone. The average home user who wants to optimize resource utilization, share infrastructure and make the best of technology and convenience is a candidate as well. The student who needs to find an economical balance for networked resources and to make the most of the Internet is a potential Network 5 user. If you are somebody who banks online, accesses work online, travels extensively and yet stay connected, logs onto wireless networks, subscribe to a broadband connection or use a computer system at work /home, you need to have Network 5 to help you stay abreast in this networked world. Network yourself with Network 5. Take control because you cannot afford to stay disconnected in this highly connected world.		Covered competencies Provides fundamental skills and knowledge necessary to network computers Requirements EC-Council's Security 5 exam 112-11
Target		Career Path
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Office knowledge workers ▪ Home users ▪ Any non-IT person using computers in their office
Authorized Testing Center:	Indicative Fee*	Certification Schedule*
PEARSON VUE / PROMETRIC	99 USD
* Fees and schedules are subject to change without prior notice, please get in touch with certification body through contact details below
Recommended/Preparatory Training
Foundations of network: Networking components LAN technologies Basic hardware components Network connectivity Wireless network Networking environment Troubleshooting
Where to get more information:
http://www.eccouncil.org/network5-course-outline.htm			